

Call for applications

The Faculty of Law is pleased to announce its organized scientific doctoral (PhD) training programme for the period 2017-2021, which is open to holders of a Masters Degree. The training is organized within the frames of the higher education credit system. The doctoral programme may be attended part-time on the payment of a tuition fee.

For further information about the announced research topics please visit the website of the Doctoral School: <http://ajk.pte.hu/doctoral-school/doctoral-topics>

The following documents must be attached to the application:

- completed application form,
- curriculum vitae,
- copy of the official transcript of academic record (comprehensive exams, final exams)
- copy of university degree certificate,
- document certifying knowledge of a foreign language – minimum B 2
- research proposal,
- supporting statement from supervisor

Deadline for applications: 02.05.2017 - 13.06.2017.

Applicants must sit for an interview, (skype too) for which a fee must be paid in advance. In order to be allowed to participate in the exam, the applicant must certify payment of the fee.

Applicants will be individually notified of the exact time and mode of the interview.

For further information please contact Mrs. Zsuzsanna Bársony, administrator at the Student Administration Department of the Faculty of Law, University of Pécs.

Address: Pécs, Dohány u 1. Tel. (72) 501-599/23296, e-mail: doktori.iskola@ajk.pte.hu.