

---

INVITATION

---

The Department of Financial and Business Law of the Faculty of Law of the University of Pécs announces international online videoconference, titled:

„The world of cryptoassets from legal and economic perspectives”

(March 19, 2021, online Microsoft 365 Teams)

We welcome the representatives of legal and economics professions, university lecturers, researchers, economic experts in the field, and last, but not least, students in undergraduate, master's and doctoral programs. Our goal is to gain a deeper understanding of the challenges in the field of these technological innovations.

---

INFORMATION

---

Papers may be submitted to at least one of the topics outlined below:

1. Legal regulation of cryptographic tools
2. The blockchain technology
3. Cryptographic tools, as new assets
4. Central Bank Digital Currencies

Registrations will be accepted via e-mail to szivos.alexander@ajk.pte.hu until February 22, 2021, containing the filled in the registration form and the abstract (cca.500-2000 n) of the planned presentation.

The received applications will be judged by a professional committee, the accepted presenters will be notified by e-mail until February 26, 2021.

Presentations can be held in Hungarian or English. MS Power Point and Prezi applications can be used. The allotted time of the presentations is max. 20 minutes, followed by 15 minutes of discussion.

In addition to the lectures, we provide the opportunity to submit studies, which will be published in a double-blind peer reviewed ISBN numbered conference proceedings volume. The deadline for study submissions is March 8, 2021. More information about the formal requirements can be found in the documents attached.

The organizers reserve the right to change the program.

Pécs, January 25, 2021.

---

The Organizing Committee