

2022

STRONG RANKINGS.
PERSONAL ATTENTION.
GREAT LOCATION.

E. Beasley School of Law
of Temple University

law.temple.edu/fllm

2022 - 2023 Information Sheet

Incoming Students

NOMINATION PROCESS

We look forward to welcoming your students to Temple Law School. Please refer to the following instructions contained in this Information Sheet to formally nominate your students to Temple. Warm Regards from Philadelphia!

APPLICATION DUE DATE

March 15 (for Fall admission)

October 15 (for Spring admission)

✓ STEP 1

Send your list of nominated students by email to:
karen.mcmichael@temple.edu.

Please include the following Information for each student:

- Student's first name and surname as listed on their passport
- Student's gender
- Student's e-mail address
- Date of Birth (Month/Date/Year)
- Current Year in School
- Semester(s) (fall and/or spring) and year student will study at Temple
- TOEFL/IELTS/Duolingo Score (if your degree program is not taught in English)

NOTE: For students pursuing an LL.M. degree, a certified score report sent directly from the testing company to our office is required. For one-semester study abroad students, the partner school can simply notify our office of each student's score.

✓ STEP 2

Students formally nominated by their home institution (Step 1) will receive instructions by email to complete this application.

✓ STEP 3

Admitted students and home institution will be notified by email of their acceptance.

✓ STEP 4

Admitted students will be given a Temple email address and student ID number. All Temple messages and communications will be sent to the students' Temple email account. Please encourage students to check their Temple email accounts regularly.

Please share the attached information sheet with your students.

CONTACT US WITH
ANY QUESTIONS!

Ally Lamson

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR FOR
GLOBAL LEGAL STUDIES
ally.lamson@temple.edu

Karen McMichael

DIRECTOR OF INTERNATIONAL
LAW PROGRAMS
karen.mcmichael@temple.edu

Farlistcity El-Baker

OFFICE MANAGER
farlistcity.el@temple.edu

OVERVIEW

International students take courses with JD students, become part of a tight-knit community, and live in the affordable city of Philadelphia, strategically located between New York and Washington DC. We warmly welcome you to join the Temple family!

Quick Facts

Language	All courses are taught in English.
Orientation & Semester Dates	Fall Semester begins mid-August and ends mid-December. Spring semester begins early January and ends mid-May. Academic Calendar ⚠ If you wish to book a roundtrip flight, please do not plan to leave Temple until the last day on which final examinations may be held.
Housing	There is limited on-campus university housing available, but there are many nearby off-campus options. Please contact karen.mcmichael@temple.edu for more information. University Housing
Student Services	The law school's Office of Graduate & International Programs supports international students with academic advising and events, while also facilitating access to university resources such as the writing center, conversation partner program, wellness resources, and counseling. Wellness Resource Center Counseling
Returning to Temple to earn LL.M. for Foreign-Trained Lawyers	If you wish to earn the LL.M. for Foreign-Trained Lawyers, up to 12 credits earned during your study abroad semester can be applied toward the degree if you return within 4 years of matriculation. We offer partial tuition scholarships to all students referred to the LL.M. program by our partner schools.
Tuition Payment	International tuition payments to the Bursar's office can be made utilizing Flywire. Tuition Billing Schedule The total account balance is due for the semester by the due date. For the fall and spring semesters, students that do not pay the total account balance by the due date will be automatically enrolled in the University's Deferred Payment Plan and assessed a $50 non-refundable payment plan fee. Deferred Payment Plans

VISA REQUIREMENTS

CERTIFICATE OF ELIGIBILITY (I-20 APPLICATION)

Once admitted, Temple will issue an I-20 to apply for a student visa. Obtaining a student visa can take several weeks.

⚠ Please complete this application NO LATER than eight weeks before your arrival in the United States, but we STRONGLY encourage you to apply sooner.

REQUIRED FINANCIAL DOCUMENTATION

A student visa requires you to prove you have adequate funds to complete your study abroad program. Please consult this list of acceptable forms of financial documentation for the Certificate of Eligibility/I-20 application. Your financial documents should show you have enough funding to cover the cost of tuition for the upcoming academic semester (or the upcoming academic year if you plan to study at Temple for 2 semesters). You should also have enough funding for living expenses such as housing, transportation, food, books, and health insurance.

The source for your funds can come from you, your parents, family members, scholarships, or an organization choosing to support you. Please prepare your financial documentation according to the category below that applies to you.

	1 Semester	2 Semesters
Tuition	$12,375 ($16,500 - 25% scholarship)	$24,750 ($33,000 - 25% scholarship)
International Student Fee*	$185	$370
Estimated Living Expenses	$7,500	$15,000
Estimated Health Insurance	$1,638	$3,065
Books and Supplies	$1,000	$2,000
University Services Fee	$445	$890

*Includes Emergency Medical Evacuation insurance.

 Tuition

CONTACT US WITH
ANY QUESTIONS!

Ally Lamson
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR FOR
GLOBAL LEGAL STUDIES
ally.lamson@temple.edu

Karen McMichael
DIRECTOR OF INTERNATIONAL
LAW PROGRAMS
karen.mcmichael@temple.edu

Farlistcity El-Baker
OFFICE MANAGER
farlistcity.el@temple.edu