

AUTHOR'S NAME: * TITLE OF MANUSCRIPT

Abstract: This should contain a short summary of the paper, no longer than 1000 characters. A good abstract not only gives an outline of the article but also contains an overview of the aims, research questions, methodology and a summary of the key findings.

Keywords: at least five keywords

I. Heading 1 (Bold)

The manuscript can be submitted in any of the topics indicated sections. The length of each manuscript cannot be longer than 40 000 characters with spaces and footnotes included.

1. Heading 2 (bold and indented)

1.1. Heading 3 (indented)

1.1.1. Heading 4 (regular)

This is a sample paragraph text. The indentation is 0.5 mm from the left side. Emphasis on certain keywords or ideas, or when foreign words and phrases are being used (e.g. mens rea) must be indented. Do not use underline or bold fonts for emphasis.

„Longer verbatim citations (longer than four lines) should be separated from the main text, to ensure the easier identification of passages taken verbatim from other authors. This should be used when the exact wording is important from a document, otherwise try aiming at blending the thoughts of author cited with your own thoughts. ”

The citation style used for the conference proceedings is the 4th edition of OSCOLA. Citations must be placed in footnotes. It is suggested to use citation management software, such as Zotero, EndNote or Mendeley.¹

Table headers should be bold
Table content should be left-aligned

Labels for tables and figures must be placed under the corresponding table or figure

* The full name, titles and affiliations of the author goes here. Also, acknowledgements or funding information must be indicated here

¹ Footnotes are 10 pt, the numbering is continuous.