

FINANCE, ECONOMICS, AND TECHNOLOGY

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE • 27 NOVEMBER 2026 • PÉCS + MICROSOFT TEAMS

Department of Financial Law and Business Law, Faculty of Law, University of Pécs with colleagues from the Universities of Cagliari and Pisa and the Institute of Comparative Law in Belgrade

PLENARY SESSION

TIME (CET) & SPEAKER	PRESENTATION
09:00–09:10 OPENING REMARKS	Welcome and introduction to the conference
09:10–09:30 Giulia Boletto PhD, Associate Professor, University of Pisa	The Evolving Role of the United Nations and the OECD in International Taxation
09:30–09:50 Andrea Poddighe PhD, Associate Professor, University of Cagliari, University of Pisa	The Global Minimum Tax and the Transformation of International Taxation
09:50–10:10 Miloš Vasović PhD, Research Fellow, Institute of Comparative Law, Belgrade	AI Tax Advisor: Drawing the Line Between Automation and Professional Judgment
10:10–10:30 Francesco Dian PhD, Assistant Professor, University of Pisa	Tax Audits in the Age of Artificial Intelligence
10:30–10:50 Vivien Iglódi Senior Manager, EY Hungary	The Evolving Transfer Pricing Landscape: Balancing Business Strategy, Compliance and Tax Authority Expectations
10:50–11:00 COFFEE BREAK	Refreshments and networking
11:00–11:20 Michele Ippolito PhD, Tax Advisor, Researcher, University of Cagliari	The United Nations Framework Convention on International Tax Cooperation: State of the Negotiations and Prospects
11:20–11:40 Fabio Cocco PhD, Researcher, University of Pisa	The Recent Cross-Border Tax Risk Assessment and Assurance Programmes promoted by the OECD (ICAP) and the European Commission (ETACA): a New Era in International Tax Law?
11:40–12:00 Igor Mirjanić LL.M., Senior Teaching Assistant, University of Banja Luka	Controversial Issues in the Proposed BEFIT Directive as Obstacles to Achieving Consensus within the EU
12:00–12:20 Luis Felipe Paulinyi Tax Analyst, Brazil	Implementing Tax Cashback for Low Income Families in Brazil: The Role of Tax Administration in Reducing Inequality
12:20–12:40 Zsolt Bujtár PhD, Assistant Professor, Head of Department, University of Pécs	Tokenization: New Digitalized Ownership - Prospects and Risks for the Capital Markets
12:40–13:00 Alexander Szívós PhD, Assistant Professor, University of Pécs	The Evolution of GAAR Rules in the EU and Hungary

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

AFTERNOON SESSION(S) • FROM 27 NOVEMBER 2026 14:00 CET

We welcome applications from university lecturers, researchers and PhD students wishing to present on a topic related to the conference theme.

ABSTRACT DEADLINE

5 NOVEMBER 2026

HYBRID PARTICIPATION

PÉCS + MICROSOFT TEAMS

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

- Title of the presentation
- Author's affiliation
- Abstract of no more than half a page (in word format)

Please use the attached formatting guidelines. Completed abstracts should be submitted by 5 November 2026 to the financialandbusinesslaw@gmail.com email address.

CONFERENCE VOLUME

Participants will be invited to submit scientific papers of 8-15 pages (in word format).

Manuscript deadline: 31 January 2027 | Expected publication: June 2027

SELECTION & PROGRAMME

Based on the abstracts received by the deadline, applicants will be notified and the final programme and place of the Afternoon Session(s) will be announced until 10 November.

JOIN THE DISCUSSION

We look forward to welcoming you either in person in Pécs or online for an engaging academic discussion.

PARTICIPATION IS FREE OF CHARGE

The organisers reserve the right to make changes to the programme.